ELEGANT DIAMOND RING DESIGN

Elegant clean lines and modern style grace this semi tension setting Marquise cut diamond ring. The strong white gold band securely clasps the diamond without obvious support, letting it float above the finger in a dazzling display of light. The curves of the ring are elegant and refined, perfect for any occasion.

A Letter from the Editor-in-Chief

Fall is here and bring on the warmer clothes and many layers. Layering fashion is what fall is all about and RUNWAY brings you the hottest designers picks in style. Going into the holiday season things get really busy and sometime we don't have time for everything, we compressed it all down into 140 pages of fashion to make it easy.

At RUNWAY we have the new RUNWAY LUX app coming out with its own currency RWC a crypto coin plus the upgraded RUNWAY campus in Hollywood is now available to the public to book.

Take a moment and relax. We are RUNWAY!

Thank you again!

Step Into Fall With Trending Personal Style

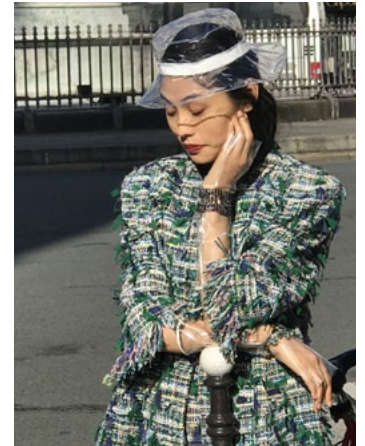

This is a favorite time of year for fashion. The time you can wear more clothing at once. It is a great time to love layers. Layering and great accessories brings personal to your closet. This is a fun time to pull a great monochromatic look. Layering makes this a lot of fun. Monochromatic is wonderful with your favorite color or use the hot pink trend this season. The metallic look continues. This is a great look for your holiday parties and red carpet events. There are many great ways to be fabulous in metallic without looking like tinsel. You can use add a nice colored jacket, prints purse, and a nice boot with a heel. Remember warm tones for gold, rose gold, and bronze. All other metallic tones use cool tones. Wool and plaids are a fall favorite. Designers like Chanel, Michael Kors, and Versace bring this look to your closet. The plaids are bold and big for many designers. It is plaids and prints for men dress with a jacket, dark skinny jean, or a plaid suit. This is vintage style returning.

Suits are fantastic this time add-ons keeps it your personal style. You can add a turtleneck, plaid jacket, or a great scarf for your parties. Turtlenecks dressed with a soft texture pant like fleece, suede, or corduroy perfect with the trend color brown. This is a great look with dress pants will be great for heading out on a date with your partner. Nothing says change of seasons as outwear. Coats will cover you well in any weather condition or temperature. The early fall is a good time for the blazer. Rainy fall days is the day for the long trench coat, a plaid one is perfect for a vintage look. Remember to add a fabulous scarf.

Structured bags and top handles a trend. This will complete your fall look. These bags are great for the necessary items in a purse. They have great compartments to keep all contents organized. The top handle brings a formal look to bag carrying. Carry almost anything in an oversized bag is a great option especially for those long days or holiday travel. You can fit your laptop, tablet, and your extra layers when indoors.

The hat of the season is Balaclava. This was a surprise on the runways this year. The ski mask hat is personalized by adding accessories. The vintage knit beanie here to stay. There are many varieties with texture and animal shapes.

Boots are a must. You can get a favorite for your personal style. Military boots a perfect boot for a less formal look. High high boots are all the rage; they are even seen on red carpets. Love or hate them the sneaker is staying. You should have several pairs of the chunky dad sneakers in your closet. They are great for long school days or traveling.

Dressing for the many holidays this season the ornamental heel is a perfect addition. This is dressing up fancy feet for the many red carpets and parties for several holidays.

You can mix and match these trends to create your own personal style.

What was your favorite look from today's shoot?

My favorite look was the cheetah print jacket. Never been huge on cheetah print. But now I am.

Who are your favorite red-carpet designers?

Wow. I have no idea. I'm so bad at keeping up with designers. I should pay more attention to stuff like that. The last carpet I walked I borrowed my friend's vintage dress that she got at an off shop for $15.

What is your most memorable moment on Grey's Anatomy?

I have so many. Every moment is so similarly set and so unique in style, it's hard to choose. For instance, I love the moment when Dahlia takes her hijab off to save someone's life because of what it stands for. But I love the moment when she gets a dog because of how much fun I had on set that day playing with the dog.

Tell us about your role model campaign?

Something I really like to stress is to embrace other cultures. While it's so important to be yourself and love who you are. I feel like it's equally as important to have a worldly understanding. America is made up of so many different cultures and ideals and embracing those differences is a good way to lift our conscious thoughts as a whole to a more empowering place.

What kind of music do you like? Who are your top bands?

Most of the music I listen to is guilty pleasure type stuff. I really like pop/punk music. Citizen, PVMNTS, State Champs, A Story so Far, etc. I also like pop and rap artists like Sza, Kendrick Lamar, Anderson .Paak, and Kanye. That's just a taste of the music I listen to. There's a broad range.

Do you have any pets?

Yes I do. I have a beautiful dog named Jack who is 4. And I've brought two other dogs into my life who are my boyfriends' their names are Jack and Roxy. So I've got a little family. It's quite cute.

What is your favorite food?

I eat whatever my dogs eat in the morning. Dog food mostly. I'm kidding. I LOVE Mac and cheese. I also have a torta from Hugo's tacos probably every meal.

Tell us about your shoe favorites?

I'm really keen on these floral doc martins I got when I was 17. They've come back into my life recently in a very big way. You also can't go wrong with Vans.

What are your favorite pieces that you couldn't live without?

My style is so simple. I'm such a black jeans and t-shirt type of girl. Right now, I probably couldn't live without my doc martins that I previously mentioned. But I'll probably get hooked on a new type of shoe soon.

What are some of your beauty secrets?

I don't usually wear makeup unless I'm working. So I don't have a particular skin regimen that I stick to. But I do eat very clean. No meat or dairy. I think that helps maintain my skin a lot.

Where is your favorite spot on Earth?

Yosemite when it's snowing. I love the mountains especially when they're covered in snow. It's the most beautiful thing in the world. Even though I don't like being cold. There's nothing like being surrounded by snow. It doesn't seem worldly.

What's up next for you?

I just shot a pilot for Amazon in New Zealand a few weeks ago that I am stoked about. It's got such a strong message and I think people will love the series. I have a movie in the works as well but I'm not sure if I can talk about it or not yet.

You looked amazing for today's shoot, tell us about your favorite part of the day?

My favorite part of the day was getting to know everyone here at Runway and in the industry. We laughed a lot and listened to some great music. I got to get dressed up in really pretty things and not have spit up on my shoulder from my child. It was great.

Whom do you wear on the red carpet?

I recently wore two dresses by Bronx and Banco to the Children's Hospital Los Angeles Gala and the Autism Speaks Into the Blue Gala. I didn't even know they were both the same designer when I pulled the dresses, so I obviously have a thing for them. I also love Delphine Manivet, she made me a jumper for the premiere of a French movie I was in called "Hollywoo". And I also wore another gown of hers to the People's Choice Awards, she is one of my favorite designers.

What is your normal style? Do you have to dress up a lot?

Jeans and t-shirts and a great pair of loafers. I'm also really into kicks or cool tennies. I love throwing on a nice blazer or comfy sweater on top. I'm a minimalist.

What do you do to relax?

Because I'm a mother of two, being at home has become a lot of work. So I've reached a point in my life where being at work is relaxing, all I have to do is sit and have someone else do my hair and makeup. They also feed you. On days when I'm acting I just have to remember my lines, whereas producing is a little tougher. I love to work out, that's usually my way to unwind, although lately I haven't been able to work out as much as I would like. I also love to read and I really love to watch TV.

You have worked with so many amazing people, who was the best to work with?

I have been so blessed to work with some incredible artists in my career. I worked with Bill Paxton on a movie when I was 16 years old and will never forget his kindness and beautiful spirit. Matthew Modine was fantastic. Jake Gyllenhaal and Ed Zwick were delightful. But it was my "Awkward" family that really holds a special place in my heart. That was such a talented cast, and they remain family to this day.

What is up with your producing career?

Producing and writing is something I've wanted to do since I was really young. These last few years have finally given me the time to write and develop. I took some time off from acting because I was pregnant with my second child, and he was born with a heart defect. He had to have open heart surgery at five days old and just had his second open heart surgery two weeks ago. I wanted to be home as much as possible. These last two years have been the most difficult of my life and I've also experienced great blessings - one of which was being at home and finally having the time to write and develop. Now, luckily, it's become a big part of my career. The last Hallmark movie I did I also produced which was so fun!

What was growing up in the south like?

Like growing up in a place where everyone knew your name. You are raised by a community of people, which is a beautiful thing. The whole town was a playground. Our parents didn't have to worry about bad things happening to us because everyone knew each other and was always on watch. We stayed outside playing until the sun went down. I had bible study, church camp, my dad as a basketball coach, playing in the woods, teachers that really cared...it was heavenly.

Our Editor In Chief has a PHD in sociology, tell us about your studies in sociology?

That's amazing! I love hearing that. I spent two years studying sociology and then had to shift majors when I changed schools. Sociology has impacted the way I see the world forever. It's literally the study of the functioning of human society. I believe everybody could benefit from learning more about how society functions. Especially in today's world.

What is your favorite part you played?

Definitely Lacey on MTV's "Awkward." I will love her forever.

Tell us about your family and pets.

I have a cat, a dog, and a fish. The cat is a British shorthair named Ripley who is absolutely perfect. He is always well behaved and so beautiful. Our fish is named Tobias. He's blue so we named him Tobias after David Cross's character on "Arrested Development" when he "blue himself." Windsor is our British lab. He's very handsome and very sweet and he's also destroyed our entire home. He literally pooped out a roll of paper towels and an adult sock over the last few weeks. He's a mess but we love him.

What advice do you have for people who want to pursue an acting career?

Love it so much that you are willing to ride the roller coaster because it's a long and often difficult career choice. There are very high highs and very low lows. Find a community of artists who will support you in your journey. I found that at Warner Loughlin Studios in 2007. The people I met then are my dearest friends still and we support each other always. Find other ways to support yourself financially...things that will also bring you happiness and joy. You cannot depend on this business for your happiness. It will always disappoint. Finally, do the work, stay humble, maintain a good attitude, and give back any time you get a chance.

Do you back any charities?

Yes!!! I am a spokesperson for both Children's Hospital Los Angeles and The Alzheimer's Association. It brings me tremendous joy and fulfillment to be able to help organizations that are literally saving the lives of others. I feel you need to give back any chance you get.

What's up next for you?

I'm back into developing both for Hallmark and other networks. Also, I'm continuing to work with my blog What We Are. It's for a community of women looking to celebrate their beautifully unfiltered selves: the good, the messy and the sometimes painful. Check out our blog at welcometowhatweare.com and you can also find us on Instagram @welcometowhatweare.

You looked amazing for your photo shoot, tell us your favorite look of the day?

The shot with the Orange fur jacket! Felt amazing in it!

Tell us about your personal style.

Personal style is pretty eclectic. I would say my most consistent look is streetwear. I love my Alexander Wang, Off-white, Champion, Vans. I love over-sized jackets, particularly my Nanushka Alamo Wool piece, I've been wearing it almost every day.

Tell us about where you grew up.

I grew up in the Okanagan Valley on the west coast of Canada, on an orchard in a small town nestled between two lakes. I spent my childhood going to the beach and surrounded by nature and beauty.

Tell us your favorite thing about filming "Manifest" in New York?

New York is very iconic, and it's a privilege to shoot somewhere that is so rich in history and culture. Mostly, I enjoy my little neighbourhood in Brooklyn, it's the quintessential brownstone area.

What is the funniest thing to happen to you on set?

Hmmmmm, I fell out of the back of a golf cart because my hands were full of snacks and I wasn't holding on. That was pretty embarrassing/funny.

What kind of music do you like?

Basically I listen to Prince and Beyonce.

Got any beauty secrets to share?

It's not a secret but wear sunscreen EVERYDAY. All year round.

What is your favorite handbag?

I have this antique wooden round purse with a gold chain... I can't fit anything in it, but it's so chic and goes with everything.

Tell us how you relax?

Movies! I love going to the movies. I find it as a form of escapism and inspiration.

What advice do you have for your fans?

There's a saying "youth is wasted on the young" and I wish I had heard it when I was young(er) but there is a lot of truth to it and so, I would say, be in the moment, be easier on yourselves and go after all the things you dream of.

What is up next for you?

Maybe a summer in Italy, or a new project, who knows! I'm open to anything.

You looked excited for your Runway Magazine shoot, tell us about your favorite look?

I loved the red oversized dress with the yellow glasses, I felt very Posh Spice.

Who are your favorite designers for the red carpet?

Recently I've been loving Bronx and Banco! Their dresses are so unique and detailed, they always make me feel like a princess.

Tell us about your personal style?

It's very East Coast. My color scheme tends to be really dark. I like wearing black, gray, white, and red. I live in leather, sweatpants, and hoodies. Sneakers are my life. My personal style is very laid back and sporty.

What is it like on the set of a soap opera?

It's incredible! The pace we work at is so fast, which makes it feel very professional but in the coolest way possible. Everyone is always smiling and laughing but we always get our work done.

Tell us about your funniest moment on set?

I forgot to shave my legs the night before I had to wear a mini skirt. The funny part was me frantically shaving my legs in my dressing room sink as they were calling my name for set. It was a private moment, but I wish I had it recorded. The look on my face was priceless.

What kind of music do you like?

Every kind. But I primarily listen to Hip-hop, rock music, and classic 80's tunes.

Got any pets?

I have one Miniature Schnauzer named Lola. She acts like a bunny/goat/puppy hybrid. She's an angel.

Tell us about your favorite shoes?

My black thigh high boots by Vince. I've worn them every day for the past week. If I could sleep in them I would.

What is it like filming a horror movie? Were you ever scared on set for real?

I was never scared when we were filming because I knew it wasn't real. However, there was this one moment where our director was showing me clips off of his phone while a scary clown stood right behind me so that when I turned around I would get frightened. It worked.

Tell us about your family and growing up?

My family means everything to me. Growing up with European parents in America was interesting because I learned European customs from them while learning American customs from my friends at school. I liked having a different world at home. It made me feel special.

What stresses you out the most on set?

Honestly, the process of getting my hair and makeup done. I don't know why but I always get restless. I guess it's just because I'm so eager to work.

What advice would you give to people who are camera shy?

Pretend it's not there. Transport yourself to another world, and try to truly believe it.

What do you have planned for the future?

Travel, work, and dogs.

What are your social media handles?

I'm @victoriakonefal on all platforms!
