A Letter from the Editor-in-Chief

Summer Runway is always the most far ahead issue as Miami Swim Week comes to an end and we get a full image of what 2019 swim fashion will look like. This is the first of the 4 tenth anniversary edition RUNWAY's. In these special issues we will be bring back parts and pieces of the past that gave everyone joy. The picks are back, and we got a few new writers to balance it all out.

For those of you into financial news you will notice the RW coin is on the rise unlike the competition, who for some reason think they are tech companies and can compete in tech. It did provide us a good laugh here and we are flattered by all the companies copying our crypto coin pattern. By Christmas you will be able to use your RW coin to purchase service worldwide with our RUNWAY LUX app.

As always thank you to my amazing staff and contributors, we had some hurdles to finish this issue including moving RUNWAY to its new fabulous Hollywood Blvd location right off the 101.

Don't forget to check out the app and buy your Runway Coins before they go way up.

Thank you again!
Vincent Midnight

Summer Fashion Trends of Your Own

Summer fashion is the time of year to show the best fashion trends as your own. The trends are exceptional to creating your own personal style. The fabulous bold colors are here. Bold color may be something you are not comfortable wearing start out slow with the bold colors. The top bold colors red, orange, hot pink, and blue. There are many approaches to adding bold colors to your styling. Wear a bold colored top with denim, mix and match the bold colors, or a bold pair colored pair of sandals. This adds great color for summertime. Fringe is as a carry-over from winter fashion. Fringe makes fashion playable and fun. This seasonal trend has lightness, movement, and light to the design. Fringe flows in long lengths or just hangs from a top. Want to try some fringe to your summer style you can incorporate with a nice stylish bag with fringe. A great way to add dimension to your styling is a puffy shoulder. The puffy fashion is a trend from award season red carpets this year. Kendall Jenner wore a little black dress by Redemption's to Vanity Fair Oscar after party. The puffy shoulder adds dimension and fullness. There are varieties of puffy shoulder styles to fit your personal style including wearing a light summer jacket with the puffy shoulder.

Pastels are a great style this season. The light color is a fresh and cool for the hot months. The ability to use pastels with a monochromatic look is wonderful. Creating a personal style with the pastel look is adding texture. Finding that one pastel piece with some texture brings influence, character, and depth. Adding texture to your summer attire is something you want to look in-depth concerning your specific body type.

Prints are a fun and a good expression of personal style. This is time to expand the box by mixing and matching, putting different lines together, and getting over the size of prints. This allows you take the fashion trend to your own personal style. Mixing up the lines or shapes brings a new scale and direction. Take the step to mix plaids and stripes, or smaller lines with wider lines. Looking to add large prints wear them on a skirt. Mixing up stripes and prints will be an exciting conversation during a summer patio dinner.

Menswear brings stripes in any direction to fashion summer. Mixing up the stripes with double stripes different sizes in a piece is fantastic. Wearing them as shorts or shirts is great for a day on the golf course.

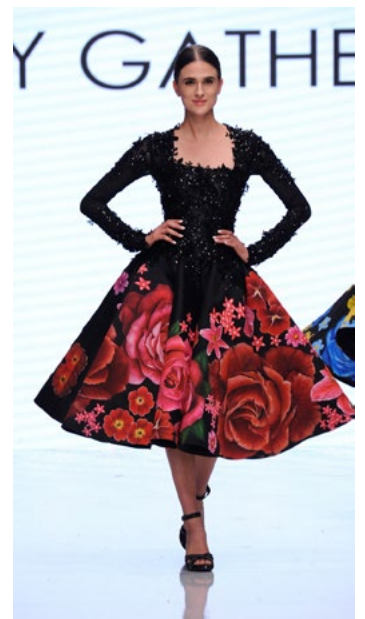

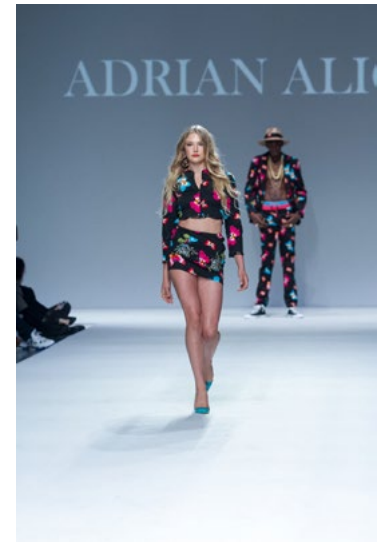

Shorts for men are always in fashion. This season it is key to remember that the length is important. Keep the shorts longer than shorter and just above the knee. If you decide to wear socks with shorts keep the socks hidden or short. This is a great summer look. Having a summer formal event to attend? The suit with shorts is the answer to the formal attire. The fabric should be a lighter fabric from your winter fabrics. We recommend a great pair of wingtips with the suit. When it comes to summer formal events add some light colors.

Accessories for men are key to a complete a well-styled look. It is important with accessories to stay away from mismatched the socks, tie, and shoes. The final look for summer is a great pair of sunglasses. Having a few to select from will complete the summer look for any man.

Summer is the time we enjoy having a wonderful personal style. This is the time to step out in a few new fashion trends while creating your own personal style.

Hey Kerri, you look great today, what was your favorite look?

Thank you! That was all Julia Perry! You ask a hard question, there were so many looks that I loved! The outfit I was most surprised by, meaning I didn't think I would like as much as the dresses, were the Amen lace pants with the NF by Nour bolero jacket. WOW! I also loved the Stello short dress, the Atelier Zuhra gold dress and the Michael Leyva long flower gown... they were superb!

What designers are in your closet?

I have a few vintage dresses that I just adore. My 1970s YSL lavender and red floor length gown has to be one of my favorites and I've worn it on way too many red carpets! LOL! My Roland Mouret dresses are incredible and I discovered the designer after watching the TV show, "Suits" and falling in love with the wardrobe.

I have different designers for the different jobs I have. Because I work in so many different vocations I need different types of clothing. Half my closet is Ted Baker and Karen Millen, two of the only designers that fit me perfectly and I don't have to take to my tailor. Also, Theory makes my favorite pants suits! To go with those suits I have my Dior nude pumps and my Louboutins.

Tell us about your personal style.

My personal style is super dressed down and comfortable. Jeans are one of my most favorite things to wear with my James Perse t-shirts! My every day jeans are made by Paige and my more dressy jeans are from Anine Bing (thank you Marisol Nichols!) Then I like to throw on my Maje silk jackets to pull the look together.

I am a radio girl at heart and when you go into the studio you can pretty much be in sweatpants with your hair up so I owe a lot of my style to a few of my friends and my stylists who live in the fashion world; Amrapali Ambegaokar, Leisa Balfour and Franzy Staedter.

Tell me about your shoes!! What can't you go without?

My every day shoes are boots made it by Lucky. I can wear those with everything! The funniest thing is, I own very expensive shoes by major designers but the pair of shoes I get the most attention in and get the most compliments on are made by BeBe! They're gorgeous stiletto type heels with a platform and a very high back with an ankle strap.

What kind of bag are you sporting these days?

My every day bag is made by Kate Spade. But to tell you the truth, I'm not a bag person. Although... Stella McCartney makes some good stuff.

You do a ton of things as a multimedia personality such as produce, write, anchored music, talk and entertainment programs for radio and television, which one of these is your favorite and which one is the hardest?

I love radio and 2018 marks my 21st year in talk radio! One of my most favorite shows I did was a syndicated talk/music program called the Sixx Sense with Nikki Sixx. Nikki started the band Motley Crue and I was a metal head back in the 80s. So I got to live my dream of hanging out with the rock stars and going on tour 4 to 5 months out of the year. Niki and I would do our radio show right before he would go on stage every night. We interviewed everyone from Paul McCartney to Stevie Nicks from Steven Tyler to Slash and it was a ball! We did that show for almost 5 years until I left to get into politics and start my Kasem Cares foundation.

Because my father experienced elder abuse late in life and he was isolated from all of his family and friends I decided to do something about it. People don't realize that once you turn 18 in this country you have no rights to see your parents if there is an uncooperative caretaker. That caretaker could be a spouse, sibling, lawyer, a person with power of attorney or guardianship. So, I have been going state to state with legislation my team and I created that protects our elderly and keep families together. We have passed our bill in 12 states and nine other states that have adopted similar versions.

I love TV as well and I'm getting back into it. Soon I'll be announcing a new TV show I was just hired for.

You asked the question about what was the hardest thing I've ever done and I'd have to say working for the UFC. Going live in front of millions of people and being in the octagon as the post-fight interviewer asking questions to the fighters just after the fight. Exhilarating and terrifying at the same time!

Dress: Atelier Zuhra

Gown: Temraza
Ring: Jewelry Bar
Ring: Rozaliya

What's up for the rest of this year?

My three radio shows I do weekly. One being a syndicated mortgage finance show called "Get Mortgage Fit" for New American Funding, another is a law show called Gurvey's Law with super attorney Alan Gurvey and a show called "Driven" with Albert Preciado. Once in a while, I do a show called Red Carpet Radio for Cumulus heard on over 300 stations on the biggest Award Show red carpets in the country.

How about next year and beyond?

Next year I'm super excited about! I've been working on a documentary for the last five years that follows my journey with Kasem Cares and the Kasem Wright Coalition fighting elder abuse and changing the laws in this country. We have followed a few families for a couple years and we show that isolation and financial elder abuse doesn't just happen to people with famous last names who happen to be rich but that this type of abuse can happen to anyone whether you have a dollar in your bank account or $100 million in your bank account.

If you had a tiny elephant to put in your purse, what color would it be?

I would like it to look as real as possible, I love elephants! So, it would need to be gray with beautiful white tusks.

I love karaoke! When I was a kid I wanted to be on Broadway. The last year and a half I have gotten back into singing with a musical theater class taught by Broadway legend Carole D'Andrea and I've been having a blast! Also, GAME NIGHTS! I have a super competitive group of friends and we go at it!

Tell us about your pets?

My 20-year-old cat is my life, Kiddy! And about four years ago a stray cat that I had been feeding for years moved in with me, Azrael. He was named after the mean cat in the Smurfs but he has turned out to be the most cuddly, sweet, wonderful cat ever!

My entire childhood up in to my 20s was spent riding horses and my horse was my best friend. Because I travel so much I cannot have another horse quite yet but I will definitely have horses again.

Plug your social media.

I love Instagram, but you can find me on all of my social media at Kerri Kasem.

I must say one thing, I've been on tons of sets and shoots my whole life and this one had to be one of the best! Everyone was so positive and wonderful... Thank you!

Thanks again for visiting RUNWAY mansion Hollywood, amazing as always.

JENN LYON

What is your favorite genre?

It terms of clothing, I love the 1940's and 1950's for women's dresses and hats. Those old movies like "The Women" and "Born Yesterday" really influenced the silhouette I love the most. Judy Holiday and Rosalind Russel are my old school style icons.

Who is your favorite clothing designer?

I don't know that much about designers or fashion. To be honest, as a plus size woman, it's been hard to get into fashion because sample sizes are so very small. I really appreciate what Christian Siriano, 11 Honore, Eloquii and Rachael Antanoff are doing, which is dressing all sizes of women. I wish more designers would do it. Honestly, you can shop at Target or Rainbow, get it tailored a little bit or accessorize it, and you got yourself an outfit.

Where do you go to relax?

I love the mountains, I love a lake, and I love the beach. I can relax in my bathtub if you give me a minute.

Tell us about your pets.

I have an old lady pit bull named Kona, and she is my most special treasure. She is so very sweet to me and the people she loves, but she has also eaten through countless wooden doors. I don't mind though. I like my women complicated.

What is the most important thing in your closet?

Probably anything that belonged to my Memaw, that's southern for grandmother. I have a couple of her dresses, scarves, and costume jewelry and that's my favorite.

Tells us about your handbags.

Most of my handbags are old book-bags, rented from RTR, or ratty used ones I bought off Poshmark. I have one super nice Nina Ricci bag that George Lopez bought me because we were doing a show together, and he said I was embarrassing him in public.

Where did you go to school?

I graduated from The University of North Carolina School of the Arts

What was your fashion like growing up?

It went in phases, but I always liked costumes better than real clothes. I thrifted hard in high school and college, and loved vintage anything from the 70's. I also went through a "dress over a pair of pants" phase that I can never take back.

Tell us about your personal fashion.

Lately I'm into collared shirts that I like to button all the way up. I like a mix of masculine and feminine. I think a pencil skirt is a dependable staple and I love high heels and saddle oxfords.

What's your personal life like? Got a boyfriend?

I have a fiancé named Taige Jensen, and he works for the New York Times. He is so funny, smart and handsome, and I'm incredibly lucky that he puts up with me.

Do you support any charities?

I do! I am a huge advocate for AisFor, which is fighting for reproductive rights daily as they are being stripped away right under our noses. I am a part of TimesUp as a volunteer with the VA. We have to do better by our veterans, they get forgotten so easily. I'm also getting ready to do a fundraiser for a fantastic group called Unlocal, and they are on the front lines of trying to get these immigrant families back together.

What advice do you have for your fans?

When you feel scared or anxious about something, ask yourself what other feelings are present as well- is there excitement, or joy, or dread, or hunger or what else is there? I know frequently I become the story I'm telling myself but if I can check in, I might find a different story.

What is up next for you?

I just shot an indie film that my friend wrote, and it's so funny. After that, I would like to repaint my bathrooms and clean out the fridge.

Welcome to RUNWAY , how did you like your experience today?

The vibes are great here. I really appreciate everyone. Good times.

Tell me about your favorite look?

I liked the leather sport-coat with the studs everywhere. I've never worn anything with that much metal in or on it before. Brutal.

What is your favorite suit designer?

My favorite suit is my birthday suit so, naturally, my mother.

What do you normally wear to be comfortable?

So, I'm coming out with a debut solo album this year. It's deep. It's tasty. Maybe you'll see me in a pair of black jeans and a black shirt.

What do you do for fun?

I'm an instigator for spontaneous adventures but, lately, I really love spending time with close friends/family for that extra quality time. Great company = great times, no matter when or where. Other than that, fun for me is making music at my studio. I'm blessed to do what I love everyday.

Where do you come from, tell us about your upbringing?

I'm born and raised in Hollywood. I know its pretty unusual to be born and raised in Hollywood but, theres a handful of us that did. Swissen Heights! HHK All DAY! My parents are immigrants from Japan. I grew up in a traditional Japanese household in a wild part of Hollywood. Running about in the streets of LA while subconsciously living with good core values. There were definitely a lot of priceless moments and great opportunities.

How did you score the West World role?

I got a call from my agent to audition. I went in, did my thing, and was blessed to be a part of such an amazing show.

What do you use to take care of that long hair?

I wash it everyday. Only shampoo. No Conditioner.

What kind of advice would you give a fan?

Do what you love. Be honest with what you want. Its yours for the taking. I've been blessed to be around so many eccentric and creative people. I want everyone to feel that there's no "weird" or "normal". Just Human.
