Tell us about your personal Style. Who is Skylar?

My style is currently very relaxed for my everyday look, which is typically crop top, jeans/ sweats, and Jordon's. But if I'm out at night for dinner/club then I tend to put on something more feminine and elevated. A long tight dress and heels to turn it up a notch! When it comes to fashion, I am open to trying on anything, but when it comes to buying something, I know what I like, so ultimately, I go with what looks and feels good.

Which clothing designers are your favorite?

My favorite designers currently are Stella McCartney and Vaute Couture because they are Vegan, Eco-Friendly, and Ethical.

What do you like to do better, sing or act?

Although, it's fun to experiment in other lanes and try to improve on my other skill sets. Singing is still the love of my life and always will be. It's why I got into the industry and why I am still here.

What is your favorite part of your music's production?

The reason why I wanted to learn more about the production side of the music-making process is that it allowed me to have more control in creating my music and having more control of my career. A lot of time, when scheduling sessions, you need to find times that work for writers, producers, etc... At any time, I can just go into my studio closet and put my idea to work immediately and stay in there until it is complete. Many of the songs on my EP "Earth Signs" were created like this or at least started this way.

Name something in your closet you cannot live without.

My microphone is in my closet and that I could not live without! But if that wasn't the case then I would say my collection of Jordan's.

What age did you become interested in entertaining?

I started singing and writing music when I was 9 years old. It came naturally to me when most things that age did not. I sang hundreds of anthems anywhere that I could to gain experience and confidence. Which thankfully led to more collaborations and opportunities. I was a sponge and never said no to any singing job and just wanted to try and absorb everything I could while simultaneously trying to figure out who I was artistically to grow.

What are your thoughts on marriage, is that something you seen in your future?

Yes, I am an old-school romantic at heart and would love to get married one day, but currently am only 19, so time is on my side. Right now, my focus is my music and so that is what I spend 99% of my time on.

Do you work with any charities?

Yes, I am involved in many charities that I feel extremely passionate about. Most involve animals and kids... PETA, LCA, Mercy for Animals, and Wheelchairs 4 kids have all been part of my life for many years and will continue to be.

Who was your favorite person to work with and why?

Everyone! I wrote the most with KC this year, who has become a good friend of mine & a super talented songwriter! We're both earth signs, so we've connected since day 1 which is important during the creating process.

What kind of music do you listen to the most?

I love to listen to chill R&B and Rap music! Some examples are Giveon, Drake, Kehlani, H.E.R, Summer Walker.

What is up next for you?

So much! I would love to release another project in early 2022 & hope to be able to tour next spring/summer!

Tell us about your personal style.

My style is kind of in between "swaggy" and fancy/sexy. I always seem to combine those two.

What do you do to prepare for a role?

To prepare for a role, I always read the whole script a couple of times and then I read my scenes with multiple people because I find I understand the character better with different points of view and perspectives. Then, I try to find similarities between myself and the character and start entering their world.

Who is your favorite designer?

I love Coco Chanel and Donatella Versace!

How did you get into acting?

Ever since I was little, I've loved movies and would imitate the characters in them. Acting is the thing I've been doing since I was seven!

Tell us about your shoe collection.

I own a lot of shoes, I recently became very interested in them. I love my pair of Jordans and my sexy high heels!

Do you have pets?

I do! I have a French Bulldog puppy named Cash and a cat named Gypsy.

What is your favorite color?

Black! It's classy, casual, and trendy...it's everything!

Tell us about your funniest moment on set.

My funniest on set moment happened while I was filming a movie when I was 14 years old. We had a scene where we were playing around a pool, and we kept falling down! It was hilarious!

What is your favorite thing in your closet?

My Adidas hoodie and my Louis Vuitton purse.

Where is your favorite place on Earth?

A beach called Los Tubos in Puerto Rico.

Tell us about All American and your upcoming projects and roles.

On All American I play Vanessa Montes, the football coach's daughter and the new girl at Beverly Hills High who has a history with one of the students. Filming the show has been an amazing, fun experience where I've learned a lot and gotten to meet great people! I also have a few features film coming out soon called Safe House and Aimee that I'm very excited for.

Tell us about your personal style.

I love the throwback to the 90s. I think I would've blended in very well during that era. I do like dressing up, I had a blast during Fashion Week in New York, but for the most part, I think I have a chill and laid-back kind of vibe. Think track suit and a pair of Air Force Ones.

How do you get in the mood to become another person when you act?

I do as much research as I can. Watching footage, talking to people, whatever I can do to just get prepared. Then when it's time, sometimes I just need to be by myself for a bit to really get in the zone before I shoot.

What is your favorite thing about playing Trina on General Hospital?

Wow, that's tough because there really are so many things I love about playing this role. I guess it's the fact that I think Trina says whatever is on her mind and I don't think I always do that in real life. I'm much more likely to ponder something before just getting it off my chest.

Who was your favorite teacher?

One of the people who had such a great influence on me in elementary school was actually my Librarian, Carol Raby. She was so incredibly kind and always seemed to see something special in me. I'm also really grateful for one of my acting teachers and mentors, Wendy Raquel. She taught me so many lessons that I'll carry with me always.

Which clothing designers are your favorite?

I'm learning to get outside of the box a bit more with my fashion. I don't have just one favorite right now, but I wore some great pieces during New York Fashion Week this year. I welcome opportunities to support up and coming BIPOC designers when I get the chance to do so.

What item can you not live without?

My water bottle. It is huge, I sip on it all day long and I think it helps my skin stay clear. I also never leave home without my phone.

Tell about your favorite bag?

My Grandpa has blessed me with a couple of great bags, my two favorites are my Michael Kors backpacks. One is pink which is my favorite color.

Where do you go on vacation?

New York, Philly, Palm Springs, and San Diego. My next stop is hopefully Hawaii.

Do you work with any charities?

I love to support charities that help animals get adopted. I also really like I Can Fly International which has a great mission helping children in Africa.

Who was your favorite person to work with and why?

I loved working with Ms. Regina King on The Gabby Douglas Story. She was so professional and dedicated to her work. I also love working with Brook Kerr on General Hospital. I think we've really started to develop a nice rapport as mother and daughter, and she is very nice in real life.

What kind of movies do you like?

Even though I can barely keep my eyes open during a scary movie, and I certainly can't watch without screaming my head off, I do enjoy a good one. I also love Marvel movies and flicks that aren't predictable.

What is up next for you?

I'm still getting in the groove of juggling school and work, it's challenging but I am grateful. I'm taking each day as it comes and expecting great things in the future. I'm just trying to stay openminded and positive.

Tell us about your role in Two Distant Strangers.

My role was Perri who was the female lead in the film. She is a no nonsense, speak her mind, type of woman. She knows what she wants and goes after it and is successful in her life because of it. Perri does a great job at being both strong and vulnerable. The writing was all there in that aspect where she was allowed to not be afraid of owning a gun and crying and screaming while witnessing something so horrific. She wasn't boxed in by her ability to be strong and was amplified by her vulnerability. I think that can only be a testament to the collaborative nature of being directed so incredibly and a direct result of thoughtful writing.

Tell us about your personal style.

I would say my style is mostly 90s chic. I don't know if that is what the Gen Z are calling it, I think it's "cheugy," but it is mostly whatever makes me feel good. A simple Levi jean that has my curves and a white crop T is my every day.

What are your favorite brands?

I love Aritzia when I am looking for something more affordable and I love my Louis Vuitton purse that I carry around always. I'm more of a out-the-box artistic cool finds type of woman. If it looks like art— I'm wearing it.

Which designers do you use for couture red carpet events?

I had the honor of wearing a custom dress by Dolce and Gabbana for the Oscars so they would be at the top of my list. I love looking at everyone's style on the red carpet from Chanel to Versace. I am a big fan of looking at vintage red carpet and runway looks.

Tell about your shoes?

I have been wearing heels since I could walk. I wore my mom's shoes even as a toddler, so I have always loved a good heel. They keep your calves in check! When I'm trying to give them a rest, I love a cute sandal.

What is your favorite thing in your wardrobe?

I have a great vintage bomber jacket I was gifted, it's got the Prince logo on it and is oversized and goes with everything and everyone loves seeing it. Because— I mean— Prince! It's a black jacket and the Prince logo has every color you could think of.

Do you have pets?

I wish. I grew up with a dog and had one ever since I was a little girl, but right now life is a little too busy to care for a puppy. Hopefully that will change soon. I had a Chocolate Lab and my brother got a Rottweiler when I was younger.

Where do you go to relax?

I got this amazing facial by Ivan Pol at The Beauty Sandwich before the Oscars, it was so relaxing. I also went to the Tomoko Spa after the Oscars so that was a really beautiful experience. What is the funniest thing to happen to you on set? Probably when I worked on "Dad Stop Embarrassing Me" with Jamie Foxx. It just so happens that my uncle Bentley Kyle Evans had been hired as well. We were in the middle of takes and at this point, we had gotten a nice scene in the can already that was strict to the script. We were trying the scene with alternative lines. So my uncle gave me a really funny alt line that was a bit risqué. We started the scene and Jamie didn't know I had a new line, so when I said it, Jamie froze and looked at the camera and said in this really high voice "that wasn't in the script!" He was so shocked it was hilarious. The entire cast and crew erupted laughing!

What is your favorite food?

I love Mexican it is my favorite type of food and I could eat it every day of the week. I also really love sweet potatoes. What kind of music do you like? My music tastes depend on my mood. Sometimes I feel like listening to Earth Wind and Fire, sometimes its Sam Cook, The Fugees, The Roots, Lauryn Hill, or Erykah Badu. If I am in for a fast-paced mood I love Dababy, Jay-Z, or Kendrick Lamar, so it just depends on the day. I work with some amazing artists too as I am also a songwriter. Benn Good, amazing producer, has really taken me under his wing and introduced me to artists like Alice Aera, Olivia Reid, and Esther Lewis—Who just performed in the "Care" fundraiser. She performed a song I helped write called "Hold On."

Tell us about your hometown.

It depends on what you consider on hometown. I consider my hometown where I lived during middle school and high school in Indiana. It was about 30 minutes about from Chicago and I made friends there that I still have to this day. I think in such small towns you create really beautiful and lasting friendships.

Do you like to dance?

I like to dance when no one is watching! I think it is a beautiful art form and I admire everyone who does it. I think that using your body to tell a story is honorable when it is done right, but I am not professionally trained...yet!

What is up next for you?

I can't wait for you to see me on the screen again soon.. but in terms of where that will be... you'll have to wait and see!

Tell us about your personal style.

I love wearing bright colors and fun patterns. My style is honestly based off of my mood, sometimes I'll be in all black with combat boots and other times I'll wear bright colors. I just love every color!

What is your favorite thing about content creation?

I love that I can be authentically myself, and be creative while having fun with it.

Tell us about your music. What inspired you to become a singer?

I've always loved to sing! I would do singing impressions all the time, mainly just messing around, but my friends would always tell me I could really sing. Later, I had the opportunity to make a Christmas song with Oly Sounds and Comanavago, who are all super talented music artists. I just loved the process of recording the song, hearing the final product, and making the music video. Since then, Comanavago has been writing and producing songs with me! I'm very new to it, but so far I absolutely love everything that goes behind making music.

Which clothing designers are your favorite?

I absolutely love clothing from Dolls Kill, Pretty Little Thing, Gucci, and Steve Madden!

What is your favorite thing in your closet?

Honestly, I have so many clothes that I feel like every month I have a new favorite. One of them is my pink romper from Dolls Kill!

Do you have pets?

Yes! I have two cats, Luna and Tito.

What kind of music do you like?

I love alternative music. Borns is my favorite artist right now.

What is your favorite social media platform and why?

TikTok because I am entertained for hours. There are so many inside jokes from it, and it's definitely a conversation starter!

Where do you go to relax?

I love laying in my bed with my cats when I need to relax. They make me so happy and less stressed about things.

Do you work with any charities?

Yes, I support Stand Up To Cancer.

Who is your favorite person you have worked with and why?

I would have to say the members of the PridehouseLA TikTok House. They are amazing people that are so much fun to be around. I am very grateful that I met them because they are so accepting and basically a second family to me.

What kind of movies do you like?

I love re-watching comedies starring people like Jim Carrey, Adam Sandler, Ben Stiller, Drew Barrymore, etc. All of the movies they are in just make me laugh every time I watch them.

What is up next for you?

I'm planning on getting more into acting. It has always been a passion of mine, and hopefully I can make it a career as well!

A woman with long, wavy brown hair is seen from behind, standing in a room. She is wearing a black, lace-trimmed bodysuit with thin straps. To her left is a bed with a large, curved wooden headboard and bright red bedding. To her right is a wall covered in a dense, sparkling material that reflects light. The overall lighting is warm and intimate.
