A Letter from the Editor-in-Chief

The Winter Issue of RUNWAY this year has been a challenging one. The world is so much different than it was 10 years ago, fashion trends have been on a slow move in compared to the times as restrictions and limits are set everywhere. Once politician get power the rarely release it and most industries have either changed the platform or gone out of business.

I like to take a moment to thank all the designers that worked through and ignored the limitations. Without them there can be no RUNWAY and we hope elegance and grace will rule the catwalk forever.

As for my amazing staff who stayed with me through the hardship and continued to light the world with style, thank you all.

Look for the new apps launching in fall on a completely free platform.

Thank You all for your support,

Vincent Midnight

Who are your favorite designers?

My favorite designers are Chanel & Louis Vuitton.

Tell us about your personal Style.

Well, since my days usually consists of the gym and then kids sporting events, I love to wear matching sweatsuit and pair it with a designer backpack/bag.

For lunch meetings i love Wearing jeans with a long coat and cute bag.

What are your favorite shoes?

I have a pair of nude Saint Laurent pumps that I always find myself wearing since they are so versatile.

Tell us a little about your fitness routine.

My passion is helping women feel and look their best. I offer online programs that include everything from customized meal plans, workout videos to meditations and life coaching.

I try to workout as soon as i drop the kids off to school in the mornings. I do mostly weightlifting and like to sculpt my body by focusing on one body part per day.

Do you have any pets?

Yes I have a little feisty chihuahua Maria who just turned 13. The kids are begging to get another dog so maybe we will soon.

What kind of food is your favorite?

I fell in even more love with Italian after visiting Southern Italy.

Tells us about your boys.

My family is my world. My youngest Logan is a charmer and sweet talker. He's daring and bold.

My oldest James who is 6 is a kind and sensitive soul. He's incredibly smart and both of them love sports and that keep me so busy. lol

What is your favorite place to relax?

I have 2!!! I created a little meditation room with crystals and candles, i spend a lot of time in there. I also Love taking a bath and having a glass of wine once the kids are asleep.

What is your favorite movie?

This is the hardest question, there's too many good ones!! I enjoy comedies !!

Tell us about your personal Style.

I would say it's active chic ;). I'm always running from workouts to meetings, so it's usually a cute active set, tube socks and a blazer :)

What designers' do you wear?

I love to mix and match designer pieces with vintage. Saint Laurent is my go-to always.

What is your favorite part of working out?

I love how it makes me feel physically and mentally. You never regret a workout! If I'm in a bad mood, stressed, or anxious I always move my body, it shifts any stagnant energy and I love feeling strong physically!

When did you start teaching?

I started teaching about 2 years ago at the beginning of the pandemic! I was on the hunt for an at home workout class but couldn't find anything I enjoyed. I decided to record my own videos and started posting them on YouTube while hosting regular live Instagram classes, hoping to help others feeling the same way.

What are you working on now?

I'm constantly working on new programs and plans for T — F Studio as well as new merch/products that I'm really excited about!

Do you have pets?

I do and I'm obsessed with her! She's a little yorkie puppy called Peanut :) @littlepeanutdog

What is your favorite food?

I love salmon and could eat it every day, but I also really like spice! Indian and Thai food are my other favorites!

Tell us about your daily life.

Every day is so different for me, but I always start with my morning routine! Hydration first, then coffee, and cleanse and ice my face. Then, I'll always move my body, meditate and journal. The rest of the day is working from home on T — F Studio, filming workouts, shooting content or modelling as I'm still a full-time model.

Congrats on T — F Studio! What motivated you to launch this platform?

T — F Studio is an online Fitness platform that I created during the pandemic after struggling to find an online workout for myself to do at home. The workouts are designed to work for everyone, anywhere and anytime using minimal space, time and equipment at an affordable price. I developed T — F Studio after trying every method, fitness class and trainer around the world and really struggling to find something that actually made me feel good. There's an overwhelming amount of misinformation when it comes to fitness, especially for women. So, I really wanted to create a style of movement that feels good and strengthens both mind and body to create mental and physical results - without any sort of negative pressure or stress. T — F Studio is a safe and comfortable space to move and feel your best.

What kind of music do you play when you workout?

Personally, I find hip hop and house the most motivating for working out. I have a lot of go-to playlists on my Spotify for every mood!

How much free time do you get?

Not enough to be honest! But I really love what I do, so I end up working every day.

Do you work with any charities?

Yes! I partnered with Feeding America for my T — F Studio hats! For every hat made one meal is donated to Feeding America.

What do you like better: voice acting or on-camera acting?

It's all acting, just via different—and admittedly very different—mediums. It's hard for me to choose one path because I love being in front of a camera, behind a camera, or behind a microphone equally. That said, voiceover vastly widens the kinds of roles I can play—kids, creatures, robots—I'm limited only by my imagination. But at the end of the day, I just love collaborative creativity and getting the opportunity to make people laugh.

Tell us about your personal style.

I'm a sneaker guy! I have a huge collection of colorful shoes. While I typically like wearing darker layers for my day-to-day wardrobe, I express my creativity and personality through bright, eye-catching footwear. Sometimes I like to match my shoe color with my sunglasses.

What designers' suits do you wear for red carpet?

As a man of shorter stature, I'm a huge fan of wearing Jimmy Au—sleek, custom suits for short guys. I've been a longtime customer of their Southern California design studio. I may or may not have a headshot on their wall!

Who was your favorite actor to work with?

One of the nicest people I've ever had the privilege of working with was Charlie Sheen. I did an episode of Anger Management with him in 2014. He was kind, inclusive, charming, and complimentary of my work. He even encouraged the crew to give me a standing ovation for my scene!

What are you working on now?

I'm thrilled to be working on my new animated Nickelodeon series Big Nate which is streaming now on Paramount+. I grew up watching original NickToons like Doug, Rugrats, and Ren & Stimpy, so life feels full circle now that I'm voicing a NickToon of my own! It's a humbling experience collaborating with so many brilliantly talented writers, animators, and actors. I feel an added responsibility as the title character to honor the source material: a longtime comic strip and book series that's already amassed a global fanbase. Hopefully our show can introduce a whole new generation of fans to Nate Wright and his gang of misfit friends.

What was your favorite role?

I've been playing The Toddler on Nickelodeon's Henry Danger, Danger Force, and The Adventures of Kid Danger for nearly a decade! It's such a blast playing the original villain on a superhero franchise. The cast and crew of the "DangerVerse" have become some of my closest friends. And the broad physical comedy of playing the Toddler has fed my slapstick-driven soul. The character has recently taken on new life via social media, as The Toddler has amassed a dedicated TikTok following of 4.5 million fans.

What style of comedy do you like?

The dumber, the better. There's a photo of my dad holding me up to a TV screen as an infant—sometime in the mid '80s—and we're watching The Three Stooges. Moe was slamming an anvil over Curly's head. So from an early age, I fell in love with slapstick, physical comedy. That said, I really appreciate grounded conversational humor too. Seinfeld and Curb Your Enthusiasm are personal favorites. They're pretty, pretty, pretty good.

What is your favorite color?

Blue!

Tell us about your daily life.

My daily life consists of pitch meetings, writing sessions, auditions, recording sessions, brainstorming meetings, press, fitness, and social time can all be summed up by one word: Zoom. #TwoWeeksToFlattenTheCurve

What bands do you listen to?

I'm a huge '90s alternative fan! Nirvana, Smashing Pumpkins, Soundgarden... I'm all about nostalgia. This is the music that inspired my celebratory music video "Back to the 90s" that charted on Billboard, amassed 100 million views, and landed my team in Las Vegas with The Backstreet Boys. Take me back to the '90s!

What kind of food is your favorite?

I love most kinds of food—Italian, sushi, Thai—but if I had to choose one dish, it would probably be Chicken Parmesan. Also, fun fact: olives are my personal kryptonite.

What is your favorite place to relax?

I'm a fitness fanatic so I actually find my relaxation at the gym (Orangetheory Fitness). It's the one time of my day away from my phone, emails, auditions, meetings, etc. I just get to focus on running, lifting, and rowing. It's heart-pumping and cathartic all at the same time. Throughout the year, I also compete in Spartan Race obstacle courses. I love pushing my body to the limit and traveling to new, adventurous, outdoor race locations.

What is your favorite flavor of ice cream?

Mint chocolate chip for the win!

Tell us about your personal style.

One of the best pieces of fashion advice I received when I first moved to LA was not to follow trends—wear what you feel good in. That really is my personal style. I wear what makes me feel good, confident, and timeless. Every time I try to make something work because I like how it looks in an ad or on the hanger, it doesn't work so I've learned to keep it simple and fun.

What designers do you wear for red carpets/events?

Gosh, I haven't had the red carpet events where anyone is asking me "Who are you wearing?" I use to work as a model at the apparel marts in LA and Atlanta and I always fancifully dreamed I'd have that brand make my dresses for my big premieres because I tend to be ardently loyal—but what has happened is I search consignment and have really struck gold with great dresses.

Who is your dream designer to work with?

Givenchy. I screenshot a lot of red carpet looks I love and they are usually Givenchy. If timeless and edgy coexist in an outfit, it's Givenchy.

What are you working on now?

There are a lot of projects in the making so I can't reveal anything yet. We'll have to talk again soon!

Who was your favorite actor to work with?

Everyone I've worked with is my favorite at the time. I love, love, love my A Loud House Christmas co-stars. We were a family on and off set. I wrapped something recently and worked with an Academy Award winning actor and that was very lovely. It felt like a Bridget Jones moment and I loved it.

What is your favorite color?

Ohh, I don't really have favorites. I love all the colors! If sunset was a color, I would say that's my favorite because there are so many different color sunsets. But also black, it's so classic.

What is your favorite thing in your closet?

My favorite item in my closet is a pair of black denim overalls. I got them at a vintage store and there are so many ways to wear them. Anytime I wear overalls, I have a sense of childhood nostalgia while encompassing badass adulthood.

Tell us about your shoes.

I was always told I have big feet, so I have spent a good portion of my life trying to get my feet to look as small as possible. In high school, I had these really cool chunky heel oxford shoes that I used to wear all the time until "Philip" laughed at them and made me self-conscious. No hate anymore to "Philip" as he is entitled to have no taste—I wish I had the confidence back then to own my enjoyment of funky shoes. I still play it safe because I'm a little too sensitive to public ridicule. I have a pair of brown booties I wear all the time to the point that someone referred to me as "boots" the other day—I really dig that nickname.

Tell us about your daily life.

Every day is different and I like that. There is a routine when I am home of coffee and cat snuggles in the morning, but my life as an actress and entrepreneur has made it hard to schedule out beyond that. There's usually a 15-minute meditation/nap I take midday. Depending on whether we have the kids or not (I'm a stepmom), it's cooking dinner or biking to the rock climbing gym. I will say 2022 is the year I update my calendar and follow it. In the past I was able to "remember" but life is getting too busy for that, especially with "pandemic brain".

What artist do you listen to?

Music...everyone, no one. I listen to a lot of podcasts from the entertainment industry to self-help. I've always connected with songs more than artists and will listen to a song over and over again. But to be honest, it usually ends or starts with Taylor Swift.

What kind of food is your favorite?

I think about this often. While I don't have favorites, I think I could eat only watermelon for the rest of my life and be completely happy. Watermelon is fresh, it's hydrating, it's got great texture. Is it the perfect food? Quite possibly.

What is your favorite place to relax?

My happy place is a hammock under a palm tree with a nice salty breeze coming from the ocean. I feel most grounded at the beach because the ocean is so vast and has this primal connection to the moon. Anytime I am unplugged and in nature, whether on vacation or a weekend hike, I feel the most at peace.

What is your favorite movie?

There are so many great movies and more that I haven't even seen. I love Joe Wright's Pride and Prejudice. Tick, Tick...BOOM may not be an all time favorite, but it is top right now. I am currently obsessed with all things Andrew Garfield and his performance was incredible and is a touchstone, a reminder to me of why I love acting and filmmaking. Also Lin-Manuel Miranda's direction was inspiring.

When did you start acting?

I started acting at 7 years old!

Who are your favorite actresses?

My favorite actresses include Zendaya , Susan Kelechi Watson, and Regina King.

Tell us about your daily life.

I live in San Diego, California. I begin my day with making my bed. I am homeschooled and I enjoy reading. I take care of my dog every day. When I'm not in school or working, I love spending time with my family. There are days where I help cook and do chores around the house.

What is your favorite music band?

My favorite artist are Beyoncé, Doja Cat, and Ariana Grande. Sometimes I'll also listen to old school music with my dad.

Tell us about your personal style.

My personal style changes most of the time, but I do love loungewear and simplicity in the clothing that I choose. I like to wear sweatshirts most of the time and style them with cargo pants, ripped jeans, or leggings. I also like wearing earth tone colors. I love to accessorize with my jewelry.

What are your favorite shoes?

My favorite shoes are Nike and Converse.

Do you think you will still be acting when you grow up?

Good question! I am not sure, however I do plan going to college so that I can have other career options to pursue in case I do not continue acting.

What are your goals?

My goals right now are to continue doing well in school and working more on my craft of acting. I also hope to take singing lessons in the future.

What is your favorite color?

My favorite color at the moment is sage green or pink.

Do you have pets?

I have one dog named Maverick.

What is your favorite thing in your closet?

My favorite things in my closet are my purses because they all have a meaning behind them.

Tell us about your personal Style.

I'd say for the most part it's pretty casual, comfy but still cute. But, when I get dressed up I have a more sleek approach to my outfit choices.

What are your favorite shoes?

I have these really good, vintage pair of strappy wooden Bebe heels. They go with so many outfits of mine. Ugh, they are heavenly!

What was your favorite role?

I honestly can't pick a favorite because they've all been so enjoyable to bring to life for their own specific reasons. I might be more in favor of Stella since she was my first comedic and lighthearted role. It was nice to feel like our energies are very similar, like the mannerisms and facial expressions, etc.

When did you learn to act?

I'm still learning - haha! Every audition, every booked role and the experience of filming is all a learning tool in my mind. I also learn from watching and working with other actors as well.

Who would you love to work with on set?

I'm going to put out working with Steve Carell to the universe again, cause why not. Can't hurt - haha!

Congrats on your role in Netflix's Tall Girl 2! Tell us about your character.

How was this experience for you?

Stella is an absolute delight, and I think people will really enjoy her when they watch the film. My experience filming was really cool. I learned a lot about myself during the process and went home with a newfound confidence in myself.

What is your favorite food?

Anything with truffle incorporated into it. Risotto, pasta, french fries... truffle it up and I'm a happy girl.

What kind of food do you eat on set?

I try to stay away from foods that might make me feel heavy or bloated, so fruits mostly are what I aim to eat. But, if it's a morning call time I'll get some eggs for a protein boost. I'm always scoping out the snacks though! Haha!

Tell us about where you grew up.

I grew up mostly in Atlanta and South Florida. I really enjoyed growing up as an adolescent in Atlanta because we were always playing outside, getting into nature and going on adventures with the other kids in the neighborhood. Then when I moved to Florida, we would hang out at the beach most of the time or by the pool - swimming a bunch. Both places were a great environment to grow up in.

KRISTINE LOCKER

How did you get started in business?

I studied business in college, attending Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas where I majored in Real Estate Finance. After graduating, I took my first job at Goldman Sachs in their Merchant Banking Division. After two years at Goldman, I continued my real estate career as a real estate broker in Los Angeles alongside my dad.

Starting a startup was not in my wheelhouse but the idea of LOCKER came to me out of a personal need. Something was missing for me when I was shopping online. Before LOCKER, I used to bookmark websites to remember about products I wanted to buy because there was no universal place for me to save my favorites. Since then, LOCKER has become so much more than just a centralized wishlist but now is a platform where online shoppers can come to be inspired by what other users are eyeing.

Tell us about your daily routine.

I usually start my days around 6:30AM with a Melissa Wood Health flow followed by a walk around my neighborhood. This always helps me calm any anxiety and start my day with a clear mind. After my walk, I immediately make my favorite iced espresso with almond milk and get my workday started. Since I am still a one-woman team my workdays are pretty unpredictable. Some days are filled with social media creation, posting, and answering questions and others are more business development focused. Around 6:30PM I make dinner for me and my fiance and then I most likely jump back on the computer to help someone shop. If I am lucky, I like to read for 30 minutes before bed.

Tell us about your personal Style.

I would describe my style as a mix of effortless, chic and trendy. I tend to spend more money on staple pieces like a good fitting pair of jeans as well as boots, heels and bags. Then I like to buy less expensive pieces that are more in line with what is currently trending to add to my outfits.

Who are your biggest style influences?

Hailey Bieber and Xenia Adonts! Hailey is my go-to when it comes to daily style from workout outfits to a night out with friends. Xenia is my go-to when I am looking for something on the trendier side. I actually have a collection of my favorite looks by both of them saved in my LOCKER.

What is your favorite type of music?

According to my Spotify Wrapped, I have a very eclectic taste in music. Country is my favorite and most listened to genre but I also love listening to whatever is on today's top hits and pop soul classics.

What is your favorite thing in your closet?

The outfit I got engaged in! I didn't know it was coming but that night I wore faux leather leggings with a velvet bustier and a black blazer with a fuzzy bag and a simple black sandal.

Tell us about your shoes.

I have always loved shoes. When I was a little girl, my mom would catch me running around the house in her beautiful high heels that were many sizes too big for me. I think shoes can make or break an outfit. My favorite pair right now is the vinyl clear heeled sandal from Zara because it is so versatile and easy to dress up or down. I do have my eyes on some Amina Muaddis for my wedding. Those and a few other wedding festivities outfit ideas are saved in my LOCKER.

What is your favorite color?

Black. Coco Chanel said it best, "When I find a colour darker than black, I'll wear it. But until then, I'm wearing black!"

What item could you not live without.

Aquaphor. I have a tube in every single bag I own and in every room in my house.

How much free time do you get?

Not a lot right now. Because I am a one woman team, all tasks fall on my shoulders so I am constantly working. When I do get some free time my favorite things to do are go on a walk or browse online.

Tell us what's next for you.

I have a lot of plans for the future but right now I am in the midst of fundraising for LOCKER. I am looking forward to growing the LOCKER team in the near future and having the opportunity to help so many more people shop online in an easier, better way!

Tell us about your personal Style.

My personal style is very mixed. I love bright colors and pastels but also love to wear black. I dress depending on how I'm feeling in that particular moment or depending on the occasion.

What designers' do you wear on the red carpet?

I recently wore a dress from David Koma at the premiere of my latest film 'Student Body.' But I would love to wear Miu Miu, Oscar de la Renta, or Valentino in the future.

What was your favorite role?

So far in my career, my favorite role has been 'Emilia' in my upcoming film "Solidarity." It is not out yet, but I am very proud my performance in that. It's a film that I am passionate about and feel very proud to be a part of.

Where is your favorite place to eat?

I love Wing Stop and Parma! Parma is an Italian restaurant in Texas that is amazing. I've been going there since I was literally a baby. My picture is actually on their wall.

When did you learn to act?

I started acting at the age of 3. So, a lot of what I learned was from experience and being on set with adults and professionals. As I got older, I did take a few classes, but I found that I learned most while on set. It's my passion. And when you're passionate about something it just comes naturally.

How many languages do you speak?

I speak 2 languages. English and Spanish. I would love to go travel to Paris someday, so French is definitely on my list of languages to learn.

Do you have pets?

Yes, I have 2 pets! I have a cat that I rescued named Bellini, and an English bulldog named Peatrie. They both get along surprisingly well. They act like siblings.

Tell us about your daily life.

I start off my day with tea. Always. I cannot function without it. And if I'm not on set, or auditioning, I spend most of my days doing whatever I feel like doing. My days can be very spontaneous.

How much free time do you get?

Some days I don't get a lot of free time but when I do, I take full advantage of them to recharge and have fun.

What was your favorite show to be on?

My favorite show to be on was Ben10. I was on that show for so long and really gained a mini family in my time at Cartoon Network.

Do you work with any charities?

Yes, I do! I am part of the Union Rescue Mission on Skid Row. I also have my own charity called Special Love, which supports and helps kids and adults with special needs and disabilities. I also do some volunteer work at Hope Gardens, which is a woman's sanctuary. I enjoy doing volunteer work when I can. It's important to give back to the community and to uplift others.

A woman with long, wavy brown hair is seen from the back, wearing a black, strappy, backless lingerie set. She is standing in a room with a large, curved wooden headboard and a bed with red linens. To the right, there is a wall or screen with a shimmering, sequined texture. The lighting is warm and dramatic, highlighting the contours of her body and the textures of the room.
